WHAT TO DO IF YOU DON'T AGREE WITH THIS DECISION

If you are not satisfied with the Agency's action on your eligibility or the reason for this action, you may request a fair hearing. You have up to 90 days from the date of this notice to request a hearing. A hearing decision will be rendered within 60 days of your request. You may make the request in writing, by talking with your worker in the office, or by telephone. You may also request a fair hearing by calling DHS Customer Service at 724-5506, or the Office of Administrative Hearings at 727-8280. You may also take or mail your request to the Office of Administrative Hearings at 441 4th Street, NW, Suite 540-South, Washington, D.C. 20001-2714. You may also contact one of the free legal services listed below. Your worker will gladly answer questions about your case, including information about hearings and how you may obtain free legal counsel from any of the organizations listed below.

The law provides: (1) that you have a "right to be represented by legal counsel or by a lay person who is not an employee of the District of Columbia Government; (2) that you may bring witnesses in your behalf; (3) that reasonable expenses relating to the hearing, such as an interpreter and transportation costs for you and your witnesses, will be paid for by the agency; and (4) that free legal services are available to you."

If you believe you have been discriminated against because of race, color, sex, national origin or handicap, you may file a complaint with the D.C. Department of Human Services or the Federal Department of Health and Human services within 180 days from the date of this notice.

In accordance with the D.C. Human Rights Act of 1977, as amended, D.C. Official Code § 2-1402 et seq., (Act) the District of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived: race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, family status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, disability, source of income, place of residence or business, genetic information, or gender identity and expression. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination, which is prohibited by the Act. In addition, harassment based on any of the above protected categories is prohibited by the Act. Discrimination in violation of this Act will not be tolerated. Violators will be subject to disciplinary action.
